9 Out of about 250 men in the Press who went on strike on the 6th October 1920, it is learned that a few (about 18) have come back and been taken on. The Superintendent says that he expects a further batch on Monday and that most of the rest will come back in the next week or 10 days

10 It seems that what is holding them back is the question of a subsistence allowance for the period during which they have been out of employment. Many of them are said to be in very severe straits and in need of money both for food and clothes.

11 If those who come back and are taken on should be regarded as having been suspended, Art. 122 of the M.S.R. would authorise the grant of a subsistence allowance not exceeding 25 per cent of their salaries. For the 250 men, the cost of this would be Rs.2000 per mensem (the monthly wageebeing about Rs.8000/-) The cost for 4 months would be Rs.8000. If a higher rate of subsistence allowance is given the cost would be proportionately higher.

12 The men are said to have for the most part been misled by designing people and the Govt. can afford to deal with them not according to their deserts out with mercy. It is understood that the men would be prepared to pay back any extra allowance thus ~~secured~~ sanctioned by working overtime for 2 hours a day until the excess is worked out. An allowance of 25% of salary for 4 months, can, it is calculated, be thus worked out in 3 months

(3) It is therefore suggested that in the case of all who return and are taken back by the 20th inst. the Superintendent be authorised to grant a subsistence allowance of 25% and in the case of such of these as desire greater assistance and are willing to repay the excess by working overtime for 2 hours a day, the allowance be raised to 37½%

Submitted to His Highness.

(20) In continuation of my Submission Note dated 23rd November 1920 reporting the facts of the case relating to the strike in the Government Press, Bangalore, I beg to state that a Government Order was issued on 4th December 1920 permitting the re-entertainment of the strikers on certain conditions. Very few men rejoined their posts under the conditions of this order but representations were made to Government that many of the men were in very needy circumstances and that some concession by way of immediate pecuniary relief in the shape of a subsistence allowance would induce them to rejoin duty. Accordingly a Government Order was issued on 7th February 1921 sanctioning a subsistence allowance of 25 per cent. of their salaries to such of the men as would rejoin before the 15th instant, and an advance of 15 days' pay in specially hard cases. The allowance is to be repaid by the men working two hours overtime and the advances are repayable in two months. A copy of the Government Order is submitted for the gracious perusal of His Highness.
